Holocaust Remembrance Day January 27th

On January 27, 1945, the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp – where more than one million people were sent to gas chambers and to their agonizing deaths during the Holocaust – was liberated. In 2005, that day was designated as the annual International Day of Commemoration in memory of the victims of the Holocaust.

Lunar New Year ~ January 29th

Lunar New Year, often called the Spring Festival or Chinese New Year, is the most important holiday in China and Chinese communities around the world. It is not only celebrated in China. Vietnam, Korea, Malaysia, and Singapore also celebrate the Lunar New Year holiday. The two-week celebration includes family and friends, feasting and fireworks, parties and parades.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO RETURN

Thank you for the amazing job in returning the PINK form--yes paper! We have 233/236 forms returned. That is a 98% return rate in just over one week. This by far the highest return rate in the shortest amount of time. Go Kingswood!

PHOTO CONTEST
January 27th - January 31st

Take a photo of you and your family reading together. Email it to Mrs. Markusoff at markusoff@sd38.bc.ca by January 31st. Each student can enter one photo, and be entered to win one of a variety of book prizes!

Feel free to be creative with your photo entry, and think of a fun or silly way to show your love of reading!

Look out for your family photo on the bulletin board in front of the library!

WINNERS WILL BE DRAWN THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 3RD!

KEEPING YOUR KIDS SAFE ONLINE

TCO₂ Presentations continue...

Students in Gr. 4 - 7 are participating in workshops called Taking Care of Ourselves and Others. Put on by a local organization called Children of the Streets, the topic is online safety and preventing child sexual exploitation is their goal. 10 Tips of Staying Safer Online is full of helpful information for parents. To learn more about child exploitation prevention see their Resources page.

What are kids up to?

Protect Kids Online gathers current interests and risks that kids are exposed to online, listed by age group, and recommends how you can support and protect your child.

Screen Time Habits

For guidance and resources for parents wanting to teach and equip their children with healthy screen habits visit Keep Tech In Check.

Relationships are the key!

Developing positive relationships with children is the key for all adults who care for, guide and protect kids off and online. Whether you are a parent or educator, having the tools to develop strong connections with children will be crucial when dealing with the challenges of the digital era that we are living in. As adults, we need to set the rules and teach them to our kids. We will be more effective when we have a good relationship with them.

Spending time doing non-screen time activities builds positive connections. A strong positive relationship is needed so can we teach them to be responsible digital citizens - to use technology as a tool for learning, to express their creativity and engage in the entertaining aspect of technology in moderation. How can we guide them so they can enjoy all the benefits while keeping them safe online?

Read on for websites, webinars and workshops to equip you to help your kids.

Games

Start next week with our boys playing an away game at Hamilton. Check the calendar on the first page of the WAG to see when our teams are playing both in our gym and their away games.

Come on out and cheer them on!

Dear families,

A wonderful enrichment activity will be coming to Kingswood in February until spring break. We will be hosting the Richmond School District's Salish Weave set. It is a collection of real artwork from various First Nations artists. Your children will be interacting with the artwork with their classes in various ways. We are inviting all families to come view the gallery in our Learning Lab after school on Tuesdays, it will be open until 3:15. Please join us in learning about the rich culture of our First Nations peoples and continuing our journey of reconciliation together. If the after-school times do not work with your schedule, please contact me and we can make arrangements.
